CLAIMS HANDLING INFORMATION:

1. Receipt

The following course of action should be taken upon receipt of any consignment:

- The consignment should be checked for both quantity and condition.
- If this is not possible then the Delivery Note should be claused: "SIGNED FOR QUANTITY - CONTENTS UNCHECKED".
- Container seals should be examined to ensure they are intact and that the seal numbers match those shown on the transport document. Any discrepancy must be recorded on the Delivery Note.

2. Damage

- Any damage found at time of delivery must be recorded on the Delivery Note.
- Where a full check of the consignment is not possible at the time of delivery it is essential that this is completed without delay.
- Written notification must be given to the Carriers within the time limits set out in their Contract of Carriage.

3. Documents

The following documents usually form an essential part of the claim and should be provided to the Company:

- Suppliers' Invoices to support values and indicate terms of sale.
- Packing Lists (where applicable).
- Delivery Receipts, Landing Accounts etc. - as evidence of condition and to establish where any loss occurred.

- d) Original Transit Document - Bill of Lading, Airway bill or CMR Note as evidence of the Contract of Carriage.
e) Correspondence with Carriers, Suppliers or other Third Parties - holding them liable for any loss, in order that subsequent recoveries can be sought from the responsible party/parties.
f) A calculation or estimate of the amount being claimed.
g) Original Insurance Certificate, if issued.
h) Any other documentation not detailed above relevant to the shipment, transaction or loss.

Immediately upon notification it is likely that the Company will instruct an independent surveyor or investigator to examine the case, with a view to establishing exact circumstances and extent of the loss. This exercise will be effected and concluded with the minimum of delay and at the Company's expense.

NOMINATED REPAIRERS

It is agreed that in respect of imports the Assured may stipulate the repairers to be used, where the repairs by any other party would prejudice the rights of the Assured in terms of the manufacturers' guarantee, warranty or similar proviso. The Company agrees to pay the reasonable costs of the repairers nominated by the Assured.

OVERSEAS CLAIMS

Where claims are payable abroad the local nominated Marine Claims Settling Agent should be contacted. This Agent will require similar action and documentation to that detailed above, dependent upon local custom.

Under this policy; HDI Sigorta A.Ş. covers the above written subject of insurance within the enclosed general and special conditions.

This policy has been enacted and signed on 25.02.2019 in triplicate.
